U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Jackson was verbally reprimanded for using illicit drugs again. When questioned about his drug use, he admitted to being at a party with his wife and eating an edible marijuana brownie. He added that he made the wrong choice in attending the party and is remorseful for his actions.

On December 8, 2022, this Officer conducted a virtual meeting with Mr. Jackson, his counselor, and the clinical director at his treatment program. As a result of Mr. Jackson's drug use, he was issued a behavioral contract. If Mr. Jackson tests positive again, he will likely be referred to an inpatient treatment program.

Mr. Jackson was encouraged to continue to attend treatment and be more involved (attend NA/AA meetings and obtain a sponsor). He was also instructed to attend the NJ Re-entry Services Program to assist him with obtaining employment. At this time, we are not recommending any court action to be taken.

We will continue to monitor his compliance and notify Your Honor if there is any additional noncompliance. It should be noted that this is his second term of Supervised Release and his second violation while released back on supervision.
